

Ashley Thomas

Houston

(713) 651-9366

athomas@susmangodfrey.com

Overview

Prior to joining Susman Godfrey, Ashley was a Contract Analyst for a global consulting firm that advises Fortune 500 companies on legal matters including e-discovery and bankruptcy litigation.

Ashley earned her law degree from the University of Houston Law Center, where she was an Associate Board Member for the Advocates and the Social Media and Website Editor for the Houston Journal of International Law. While pursuing her law degree, Ashley served as an intern for the Honorable Judge Frances Stacy in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas and worked on a variety of civil disputes. In addition, Ashley also worked at a law firm where she worked on corporate and real estate transactions and matters involving civil litigation.

Ashley is a member of the South Asian Bar Association, Houston Bar Association, and Houston Young Lawyers Association (HYLA).

Honors & Distinctions

- CALI Awards (highest grade in Legal Research & Writing I & II, and Civil Procedure II)
- Dean's Merit Scholarship
- Presidential Fellow
- Dean's List
- The Advocates, Associate Board Member
- Houston Journal of International Law, Social Media and Website Editor

Education

The University of Houston Law Center (J.D.,)

The University of Houston (B.B.A., Management, summa cum laude)

Admissions

Bar Admissions

- Texas
- South Asian Bar Association
- Houston Bar Association
- Houston Young Lawyers Association (HYLA)

Leadership & Professional Memberships