

Susman Godfrey Recognized with the Defender of Justice Award by the Western Justice Center

10.15.2018 | 10 | 48AWARDS & RECOGNITIONS, NEWS

SUSMAN GODFREY

Susman Godfrey received the Western Justice Center's "Defender of Justice Award" for the firm's commitment to service and advancing the bar.

The Defender of Justice Award is given annually to law firms that, "demonstrate a continuous and distinguished record of supporting alternative dispute resolution, public service, and community involvement."

The Western Justice Center is a non-profit organization dedicated to building a more civil, peaceful society where differences are valued. The center designs and implements creative programs that change the way people think about and respond to differences and conflict. Their programs raise awareness, build skills and increase the possibility of just communities and schools.

Click here to see past winners of this award.